This is a message from Dr. James Wilson: (This is our 9:00 am briefing to you regarding Hae Lee.)

We are presently continuing our Plan of Action. We are dealing with approximately one dozen grieving staff members and fifty student. We have communicated with Detective O'Shea of Baltimore County Police and he would rather we refer the media, if necessary, to Mr. Bill Toohey of the Police Department's public relations office. If the media insists, I will have one brief press conference. All teachers and staff will refer everything to me.

Also, we received a call from Dr. Goins at Woodlawn Middle to request an administrator to assist at Southwest Academy this morning. Rather than an administrator, I sent our officer to see if Ms. Turner needed his assistance. (He has not returned at this time.) It is my understanding that she had a bomb threat at Southwest Academy.

If necessary, please contact me at the school. If I am not available, please ask for Mrs. Zucker. Unfortunately, I will be attending the wake of a staff member's father this morning as well. Mr. Steve Hogan's (our PPW) dad passed away on Tuesday.

Thank you, again, for your time and we will update you at 12 noon.
